Detroit Board of Education

1.0 Policy

It is the position of the Detroit Board of Education that teachers should not be promoted from the classroom to administrative positions except at the following points in the calendar: effective the beginning of the fall semester, immediately following the confirmation of Fourth Wednesday enrollment/reorganization and effective the beginning of the spring semester.

Therefore, except in extreme emergencies approved by the General Superintendent, teachers may be promoted from the classroom only at the three (3) times cited above.
