1.0 Policy

1.1 PURPOSE OF POLICY

The Detroit Public Schools (DPS) provides computers and network capabilities to students for the purpose of enhancing instruction through technological resources. The DPS may make Internet access or electronic mail (e-mail) available to students on the DPSnet as educational resources. It is a general policy of the DPS to promote the use of computers in a manner which is responsible, legal, and within acceptable standards of etiquette and appropriateness. Student use of the DPSnet is a privilege. A student's failure to adhere to the Student Acceptable Use Policy (policy) will result in the revocation of the student's access privileges. Should a student's access privileges be revoked, there shall be no obligation to provide a subsequent opportunity for access to the DPSnet.

1.2 USE OF THE DPSnet's SERVICES

Improper use of the DPSnet is prohibited. Uses of the DPSnet that are prohibited include, but are not limited to:

- 1.2.1 Use of the DPSnet for, or in support of, any illegal purposes;
- 1.2.2 Use of the DPSnet for, or in support of, any obscene or pornographic purposes; this includes, but is not limited to the retrieving or viewing of any sexually explicit material;
- 1.2.3 Violation of any provision of the Federal Educational Right to Privacy Act, which governs students' rights to privacy and the confidential maintenance of certain information, including but not limited to, a student's grades and test scores;
- 1.2.4 Use of profanity, obscenity or language that is generally considered offensive or threatening to persons of a particular race, gender, religion, national origin, disability, height, weight, marital or familial status or veteran status;

- 1.2.5 “Reposting” or forwarding communications without the author’s prior consent;
- 1.2.6 Copying commercial software in violation of state, federal, or international copyright laws;
- 1.2.7 Using the DPSnet for financial gain or for the transaction of any business or commercial activities;
- 1.2.8 Plagiarizing (claiming another person’s writings as your own) any information gained on or through the DPSnet or any other network access provider;
- 1.2.9 Using the DPSnet for political lobbying;
- 1.2.10 Intentionally disrupting the use of the DPSnet for other users, including but not limited to, disruptive use of any process, program, or tool for ascertaining passwords or engaging in “hacking” of any kind, including but not limited to, the illegal or unlawful entry into an electronic system to gain secret information;
- 1.2.11 Providing access to the DPSnet to unauthorized individuals; and
- 1.2.12 Use of the DPSnet to violate any provision of the Detroit Public Schools Student Code of Conduct.

1.3 GENERAL INFORMATION

The privilege of using the DPSnet is free to students of the Detroit Public Schools.

The student to whom an account on the DPSnet is issued is responsible, at all times, for its proper use.

A Responsible Student User of the DPSnet:
