

Heart Map

Directions: Have you ever drawn a map of your own heart? Using the example below, fill up the list by writing in words that fit into the sentence, "I am a _____." Then write the words on your list into the heart on the back of this page. The most important words should be given a lot of space in your heart, and the words that are less important should get less space.

1. I am a reader.
