

AUTISM FAMILY NIGHT

Friday, Nov. 17, 2017 / 4pm-6pm

Durfee Elementary-Middle School / Auditorium & Gymnasium
2425 Tuxedo Street, Detroit, MI 48206

Presented by

This event is FREE and open to DPSCD families who have a child with autism, or are looking for more information on Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Parents, guardians, extended family, children, and siblings are welcome to enjoy the many activities that we have planned.

Autism Info for Adults

Welcoming address by Deborah Washington,
ASD Supervisor at DPSCD

Informational talk by pediatrician Dr. Steven Merahn, Chief Medical Officer
at Centria Healthcare

Activities for Kids

- Sensory-Friendly Santa
- Bounce House
- Face Painting
- Thanksgiving Arts & Crafts
- Parachute
- Obstacle Courses
- Free Snacks

Questions?

DPSCD Contact: Sarah Jardine / sarah.jardine@detroitk12.org / 313-656-8065

Centria Contact: Matt Blouin / mblouin@centriahealthcare.com / 248-342-2092 / www.centriaautism.com